

Once in a Lifetime: The Extraordinary Story of the NY Cosmos

Saturday February 24th at 7:00 pm

Gillioz Theatre
325 Park Central E.
½ block West of the Discovery Center

Director Paul Crowder will be in attendance to talk about the movie, soccer and film making.

Paul is married to a Glendale Falcon
Kelly H'Doubler
and named a daughter Zola, after a favorite Chelsea soccer player from his youth.

Tickets are $7.50,
students pay $5.50.
Available at the Door.

The rise and fall of the N.Y. Cosmos - the soccer team that brought Pele to America
- set against the backdrop of New York City in the 1970's.

Goals, greed and girls.

And that's just the first half... The untold story of the team that had America at its feet.

Paul Crowder is the editor of the documentaries: Dogtown
and Z boys, and Riding Giants and is currently directing a film about the legendary rock band
The Who.

(Rated PG-13 for adult language, and some nudity.)

SGFsoccer.com

Brought to you by the "Show Me" Missouri International Film Festival

This year's festival will emphasize the art of short films, including the 2005 and 2006 Academy Award nominated shorts and short animated films.

Don't miss this opportunity to view a wide variety of the very best contemporary independent films being produced today. Please join us February 21-25, 2007 for this exciting event in downtown Springfield. Weekend and Day passes are available online. Single show tickets are available the day of the event.

<http://www.missourifilm.org>